

Quality policy

Pemco Additives AB distribute products to the fuels and lubricant industry.

We strive to continuously develop and improve our offerings and relationship with customers and principles. Our key values are customer focus and flexibility.

We serve our customers according to promises and do our outmost to fulfil their and our other stakeholders demands. Our principles can trust we represent them in the most professional way.

To achieve our objectives, we strive to have the right competence, to be service minded, to keep our promises and to give relevant feedback to customers and principles.

We focus on preventive quality work that contributes to continuous improvement by setting measurable targets and continuously monitoring them.

Pemco Additives AB stand for market knowledge, engagement and delivering on commitments.